

Sheila A. Patterson

JCC Board of Trustees

Biographical Sketch

Sheila Patterson has worked for Consumers Energy since January 2002. She earned a master's degree in business administration in 2001 from Spring Arbor University and a bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Spring Arbor College in 1993. She received a Driver Education Certificate from Central Michigan University in 2000.

Ms. Patterson's current role as a health, safety and environmental coordinator for Consumers Energy is to audit service centers across the state of Michigan against OSHA regulation.

In the community, she is serving a second four-year term on the Jackson Public School Board of Education, in which she was re-elected in May 2008. She serves on the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Executive Committee, and currently holds positions on the American Association of Blacks in Energy.

She is a member of St. Mary Star of the Sea Catholic Church and in her spare time loves to visit with family and friends and enjoys traveling.
